

Anthropology Emphasis

Associate of Arts

Associate of Arts: Anthropology Emphasis. Colorado Mountain College offers students the opportunity to complete the AA-Anthropology requirements at CMC and then transfer into a degree program at a participating Colorado public four-year college or university. To ensure maximum transferability of your degree credits toward your goals, please see your advisor.

See the section on Scholarships and Awards for scholarship opportunities related to this program. The Associate of Arts - Anthropology Emphasis degree is offered at all locations. Not every course is offered on every campus.
