

VETERINARY TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM

Two-Year Track

1st Semester – Fall

VET 1000	Introduction to Veterinary Technology	2 credits
VET 1003	Veterinary Technology Math	1 credit
VET 1205	Animal Handling & Restraint	2 credits
VET 1011	Animal Care I	1 credit
BIO 2130	Animal Anatomy & Physiology I	4 credits
VET 1021	Clinical Pathology I	5 credits
		15 credits

2nd Semester – Spring

BIO 2132	Animal Anatomy & Physiology II	4 credits
BIO 2104	Microbiology	4 credits
VET 1002	Computer Apps for Veterinary Technicians	1 credit
VET 1023	Clinical Pathology II	5 credits
VET 2024	Pharmacology	3 credits
VET 1012	Animal Care II	1 credit
		18 credits

3rd Semester – Fall

VET 2001	Anesthetic Nursing	3 credits
VET 2002	Anesthetic Nursing – Laboratory	2 credits
VET 2006	Radiography	3 credits
VET 2007	Radiography – Laboratory	2 credits
VET 2008	Veterinary Medical Nursing I – (Small Animal)	3 credits
VET 2011	Animal Care III	1 credit
		14 credits

4th Semester – Spring

VET 2003	Surgical Nursing	3 credits
VET 2004	Surgical Nursing – Laboratory	2 credits
VET 2060	Veterinary Clinical Management	3 credits
VET 2009	Veterinary Medical Nursing – (LA-G.L.)	3 credits
VET 2087	Work Experience	5 credits
VET 2012	Animal Care IV	1 credit
		17 credits

TOTAL CREDIT HOURS 74 credits

Required VET___ Species Management Course (Canine, Equine, Exotics, Feline, Wildlife) One management course is required, the others are encouraged but are optional. These can be taken during the first or second semester.

Required general education courses –It is highly recommended to take these courses prior to starting the program or completing them during the summer in between semesters. Otherwise, they must be taken during the first two semesters. The second-year schedule does not allow for other classes. ENG 1021 English Comp, COM 1150 Public Speaking or COM 1250 Interpersonal Communication, and PSY 1001 General Psychology or PSY 1004 Human Relations.